

THE EIGHTH
WOMEN IN PRINT
 COMMUNICATIONS

Luncheon

WEDNESDAY, September 9, 2015

LONG BEACH MARRIOTT, 4700 Airport Plaza Dr., Long Beach, CA

You are invited ... to the Eighth Women in Print Communications luncheon, featuring two of our previous panelists along with a family member that was either inspired by them or inspired them to follow a career in our industry. Join us and hear how these young managers were influenced to follow in their parents' footsteps; the challenges of working with 'mom' or 'dad', and the contributions they have brought to the family business. Women Matter in Family Business... according to Conway Center for Family Business; Nearly 60 percent of all family-owned businesses have women in top management team positions. Our distinguished panel includes:

Susan Kinney

President,
 Castle Press

-AND-

Kim Munoz

Daughter and Account Representative,
 Castle Press

Castle Press was founded in 1931 as a printer of fine limited-edition books. It has grown into a commercial printing company widely recognized for the meticulous attention it devotes to the quality of its products—and for the flexibility and speed its leading-edge technologies allow. Recipient of 11 Best Workplace in America Awards.

Erin Warren

Manager Business Development,
 Crown Printers

-AND-

Denny Shorett

Father and President,
 Crown Printers

Crown Printers was established in 1970 and is a family-owned and operated business. Located in San Bernardino for the last 45 years, Crown Printers offers 40" sheet-fed color printing, digital, wide-format, fulfillment and mailing, receiving many awards for its capabilities regionally and nationally.
